

What are the requirements to run a 'biased' selection?

Written by Ed Champness

Tuesday, 29 September 2009 19:57 - Last Updated Tuesday, 16 February 2016 13:46

---

A biased selection enables you to select a diverse set of compounds that are also influenced by a particular property. You can define diversity in terms of the chemical structure and/or properties and choose and choose from a variety of metrics for determining the optimal way to choose diverse compounds.